

Dakota Pathways: A History

Episode 11 - Blackboards and Computers

Across

2. one who has executive oversight and charge
5. a geographical area belonging to or under the jurisdiction of a governmental authority
8. the condition of being successful or thriving; especially: economic well-being
9. a body of persons having the power to legislate; specifically: an organized body having the authority to make laws for a political unit
10. a residence hall providing rooms for individuals or for groups usually without private baths
11. a manufactured object or vehicle intended to orbit the earth, the moon, or another celestial body

Down

1. an institution of higher learning providing facilities for teaching and research and authorized to grant academic degrees
3. a tract of land set apart by the federal government for a special purpose, especially one for the use of a Native American people
4. an institution offering instruction usually in a professional, vocational, or technical field
6. the season for gathering in agricultural crops
7. the condition of being deprived of legal right, qualification, or capacity